Parking:
Parking is NOT included with your festival pass. Each vehicle parking on-site at DelFest must purchase a parking pass ($50) online at DelFest.com. Redeem your parking pass for a decal at the main box office or purchase one there (while supplies last). Off-site parking with shuttles will be available as well ($20). We strongly encourage carpooling! Vehicles may leave and re-enter the campground with no additional fee, but are not guaranteed to return to the same spot. We appreciate your cooperation by limiting vehicular traffic in the campgrounds. If the total length of your vehicle plus anything that’s attached to it is 18’ or longer, it is considered an RV and must have an RV Pass or RV Dry Pass to park on-site.

Accessible Parking:
Patrons with a valid, state-issued accessible parking placard or tag must purchase the appropriate parking pass in order to park on-site. Upon arrival, show the parking attendant your Parking Pass and valid accessible placard and you will be directed to our Accessible Camping, centrally located within the fairgrounds and in close proximity to accessible bathhouses.

Camping:
Camping is included with all multi-day tickets and is designated on a first come, first served basis. The fairgrounds have permanent restrooms and showers and we supplement the facilities with ample portable toilets.
We have a designated area for Family Camp, which is expected to be somewhat quieter at night and louder in the morning. If you've got little ones in tow and you are interested in camping in Family Camp, let the parking attendants know and you'll be pointed in the right direction.
The campground opens for 4-day Pass holders at 10:30am on Thursday, May 21. The gates open at 8AM Friday, May 22 for Fri - Sunday Pass holders.

Festival Guidelines:
We are committed to fostering a relaxed atmosphere, but there are certain guidelines you must abide by in order to ensure a safe and fun festival for everyone.

- Absolutely NO PETS allowed on the festival grounds or parking lots (licensed ADA assistants excepted). This will be strictly enforced.
- No fireworks or sky lanterns.
- No drum circles or amplified music from 11pm - 11am.
- Personal campfires are permitted if you bring your own fire pit or fire ring and fire extinguisher. You are required to clean up the fire area and appropriately dispose of all debris before leaving. Please practice fire safety.
- No cans, bottles, kegs, jugs (except water) or chairs higher than 18” permitted on the music meadow.
● For safety reasons, no Frisbee throwing in the music meadow.
● All personal possessions must be removed from the music meadow after each night's performance.
● No unauthorized vending - if you're not a registered vendor you cannot sell or distribute anything on the festival grounds.
● Audience and radio taping only (no soundboard patches).
● No video recording, or drone photography of any performances.
● No motorized vehicles (golf carts, ATVs).

Festival goers must abide by all local, state, and federal laws. NO ALCOHOL OR DRUG SALES tolerated anywhere on the festival site or annexed properties. Anyone caught selling or distributing illicit substances will immediately have their wristband cut and be ejected from the festival. Further legal repercussions are likely. Your cooperation is essential to the festival's future. We cannot over-emphasize this.

Don't Forget to Bring:

● Sleeping bag
● Warm clothes (nights can be cool)
● Flashlights
● Sunscreen, hat, shades
● Rain gear (extra tarps)
● Acoustic instruments for campsite jams
● Portable radios to tune into our on-site Del Radio
● Water bottles
● First aid kits for your campsite

A selection of great food & craft vendors will be at DelFest, as well as organic juices and teas, craft beers and fine wine. Ice may be purchased at all the drink booths.
